“These hearts were woven of human joys and
cares,
Washed marvellously with sorrow, swift to mirth.
The years had given them kindness. Dawn
was theirs
And sunset, and the colours of the earth.
These had seen movement, and heard music;
known
Slumber and waking; loved, gone proudly
friended;
Felt the quick stir of wonder; sat alone;
Touched flowers and suns and cheeks. All this is ended.”

But it is not ended.

Ghe deeds and sacrifices of the six hundred and sixty-
six men who laid down their lives in defense of freedom in World War I and World War II are a living part of McGill University.

So it will be in perpetuity.

Gong after these pages have faded away their memories will remain bright. The "crimson" of their blood and the "white" of their purpose will be an inspiration to all who follow.

Let all men honour them.

Inscribed in this Book are the names of the men who went out to distant battlefields
in two world wars, and came not back to us again.

My heart hath them still in remembrance, and is humble within me.
